

JOHN ELLIOTT.

DECEMBER 20, 1831.

MR. DOUBLEDAY, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of John Elliott, report:

The petitioner, though a cripple, served in the revolutionary war, against the common enemy, both in the militia and in the continental army, for several periods of time, amounting in all, to about twenty-five months. He enlisted for, and served eight months in, Marshall and Putnam's regiment, which was on the continental establishment. It appears from the testimony, that he is in indigent circumstances, and needs the assistance of his country for support. Your committee are therefore of opinion, that the said petitioner ought to receive a pension, and have therefore reported a bill for his relief.

JOHN ELLIOTT

December 20, 1837.

Mr. BOURNE, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pension, made the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Revolutionary Pension, to whom was referred the petition of John Elliott, report

The petitioner, though a cripple, served in the revolutionary war, against the common enemy, both in the militia and in the continental army, for several periods of time amounting in all, to about twenty-five months. He enlisted for, and served eight months in Marshall and Putnam's regiments, which was on the continental establishment. It appears from the testimony that he is in indigent circumstances, and needs the assistance of his country for support. Your committee are therefore of opinion, that the said petitioner ought to receive a pension, and have therefore reported a bill for his relief.